6. INFORMATION REQUEST PROCEDURE

To request a document in terms of the Act, the requester must use the prescribed form, as prescribed in the Act, and which is available from the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development Website (www.doj.gov.za)

This must be submitted to the Information Officer of Nqabile Recorporations. The requester must provide sufficient detail to enable the company to identify the record and the requester. The requester must identify the right that he/she is seeking to exercise or protect, and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right. If the request is made on behalf of a person, the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request.

In terms of Section 63 of the Act, the head of Nqabile Recorporations, must refuse a request for access to a record if its disclosure would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third party, including a deceased individual. Furthermore, the head of Nqabile Recorporations must refuse a request for access to a record of the company if the record contains; trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific and technical information, the disclosure of which could harm the interests of Nqabile Recorporations. Similarly, in terms of section 64 of the Act, the above refusal grounds apply in respect of the commercial and other information of third parties held by Nqabile Recorporations. Access to such records will require the written permission of the third party concerned before Nqabile Recorporations will permit access to view. Access to documents held by Nqabile Recorporations, may also be refused by any other grounds detailed in the Act.

In accordance with the above mandatory refusal grounds, the Information Officer will make a decision whether to accede to a request for access to information.

Any requester who is unhappy with the information officer's refusal to grant access to any information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to court for relief.

Any search, reproduction, and document preparation necessitated by requests for information will be undertaken in accordance with the prescribed fees, which can be found on the website of the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development, cited above.

7. MANUAL AVAILABILITY

In addition to the availability of this manual at the South African Human Rights Commission, this manual is also available from the Information Officer of Nqabile Recorporations. In this regard, any transmission costs/postage will be for the account of the requester.
